

Bringing more Awareness into your S.I. Practice

Date(s): March 28-30, 2010

Location: Turino, Italy

Instructor: Liz Stewart

Fees: € 400

Registration Information: Contact Fulvio Faudella at rossfui@tiscali.it

Credit: This course is approved for 18 IASI Type I CE credits.

Course Description: Listening is one of our greatest tools. How do we notice and work with subtle changes? These 3 days will be spent fine-tuning our skill by exploring what it is that supports a session: tracking, awareness thru movement, hands-on touch, words, etc.

Instructor Biography: Liz Stewart is an Advanced S.I. and Movement Practitioner. She is currently on the Faculty of The Guild for Structural Integration, and she also teaches Continuing Education under the umbrella of the International Association of Structural Integrators. As a teacher, Liz guides students into understanding the work with a sense of adventure and curiosity. She is fun in the classroom and brings a wealth of knowledge from her many years of practice, assisting in classes, study and self development. Liz maintains a private practice in Boulder, Colorado.